Brief Items.

JUNIUS—Your communication received too late for publication. Will appear next week.

On the 23rd of July, four men, Gabriel Long, Wm. Frymier, Peter Kling and James M'Clure cut 244 acres of oats on the farm of Wm. M'Clure, in Tyrone twp. Who can beat it?

A party of young men from this place, while fishing at Dugan's dam on Friday last, shot a white crane, which measured 4 feet 7 inches across the wings and stood over four feet in height.

Mr. George Barnett, of this place was somewhat injured on Friday afternoon. His saddle horse stumbled and fell, throwing Mr. B., who fell under the animal. The other horses dragged him some yards before they could be stopped, causing some severe bruises but breaking no hones.

A young man residing in Carlisle handed his watch to a woman who was telling fortunes, she saying she needed to put it in her pocket while she told his fortune. Afterwards she declined to return it and the young man took her by the throat to force it from her when she have it same distance entirely destray. threw it some distance entirely destroy-

The "Centre Literary Society" will hold its 2nd annual Pic-nic at Laurel Grove School House, Saturday August 4. All are invited. H. H. McKEEHAN, Secretary.

Struck by Lightning .- Mr. Henry Rice, of this place was struck by lightning, during the thunder shower of Friday evening. He was at the time fixing the spout, and the fluid came down the pipe, paralyzing his arm and shoulder, and causing him to fall over insensible. He soon recovered, but felt for some time afterwards a pricking and numbness in the side that received the stroke. No doubt the heaviest portion of the fluid had passed down the lightning rod, or his injuries would have been more serious.

Drowned .- Mr. M. S. Winey, merchant, in Port Royal, Juniata co., Pa., and a young man in his employ, went into the Tuscarora creek at that place, to bathe, on Friday evening last at about 10 o'clock. Mr. W. got into water beyond his depth and before his companion could rescue him or call help, he was drowned. The body was found on Saturday morning at three o'clock. Neither of the gentlemen could swim. The sad affair has cast a gloom over the whole community.

Horse Stolen. - On Sunday night a week a horse belonging to Mr. Solomon Kerchner residing near Liverpool was stolen from the pasture. The chap left behind him a note (evidently to gain time before a pursuit) which read as fol-

"MR. SOLOMON KERCHNER: Rest easy about your mare; she is not stole. I only borrowed her; she will be back by Tuesday evening, then I will settle the damage with you satisfactory on both sides. Yours truly,

YOUR NEAR NEIGHDOR."

Mr. K. did not believe his "near neighbors" would take such liberties, and therefore at once took means to recover the animal. He offers a reward of forty dollars for the arrest of the thief and recovery of the property.

Sheriff's Sales .- The following properties were sold by the Sheriff on Friday last:

A tract of land situate in Toboyne twp., seized as the property of J. J. Baker, sold to Samuel Woods for $535.

A lot of ground situate in New Buffa lo borough, seized as the property of Jeremiah Siders, stricken off to W. A. Sponsier for $100. (This was not sold as it did not bring two-thirds of apprais-

Presbyterian Reusion.-A committee composed of representatives from the various Presbyterian churches in the Cumberland Valley, met at Mont Alto Park on Thursday to determine the time and place for the fourth annual reunion. After a full and a free Interchange of opinion, it was resolved unauimously that the gathering should be held at the Mont Alto Park on Wednesday, August 22nd. The numbers of the committee, a number of whom had never seen the Park before, were greatly impressed with the beauty and advantages of the place, and regard it as far superior to Oakville, where they have met heretofore. Full particulars in regard to fares, running of trains, &c., will be made as soon as arrangements are perfected.- Volunteer.

The Crops in Franklin County. - We learn from the Repository, that the wheat crop just secured is probably the largest ever harvested in Franklin county. The grain is of good quality, and weighs well. As the dealers here have been paying one dollar and a half per bushel, there is more being threshed out than usual immediately after harvest. This is, we think, a wise policy to pursue, if farmers can spare the time.

Highway Robbery Attempted .- On Thursday night Geo. Shrader, a driver for J. H. M'Gaughy of Little Cove, was coming down the mountain, when a man leaped from the bushes, and grabbing his horses by their bridles demanded his money.

" Hard or soft "" asked Shrader feeling for his pocket book. "Don't care which," returned the

"Take that," said Shrader blazing away with his revolver.

" For Heaven's sake don't shoot me," shouted his assailant, and releasing his hold of the horses darted off into the road among the bushes.

Some one threw stones at Shrader from the side of the road, but a bullet sung thror h the bushes, and their occupant sk-daddled one direction and Shrader got out of the mountain at a 2:40 galt.-Franklin Repository.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

During last week three boys—Ira Wilson, Stanton Wilson and Morris Garman—received severe injuries while bathing in the canal below town. Ira Wilson, while diving, ran against a sharp stone, cutting and scratching his side very severely. Stanton Wilson, in diving off the bank—head foremost—struck his head on a stone, making an ugly wound. Morris Garman, while swimming under the sluice, went over the gates—a distance of about ten feet—receiving injuries that necessitated surgical attendance.

A little son of Jerome Hack, residing at the 'lock-house, in Mexico, aged 18 months, was drowned in the creek near his father's house, on Wednesday morning of last week. The child wandered from home unperceived by the mother, and falling over a high embankment into the creek was drowned. When discovered, the boy was floating down the creek. All efforts to recussitate the child proved unavailing.—Democrat & Reaproved unavailing.—Democrat & Register.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

A resident of Sidestown has been lodged in jail on the charge of stealing a harrow-tooth, valued at 10 cents.

One day last week, Joseph, son of J. K. Klink, of Newville, fell from a tree at the cemetery east of town, and dislocated his shoulder.

We are informed that Gardner & Co's extensive machine shops at this place will be closed this evening or to-morrow, for an indefinite period.—Carlisle Mirror.

Mr. Asbury Taylor, of Leesburg, recently cut his knee with a drawing knife. The other day he went into the oats field and poisoned the wound, which has become so painful that it is feared look law might enable. lock-jaw might ensue.

For The Bloomfield Times MR. EDITOR :- On last Saturday the 21st MR. EDITOR:—On last Saturday the 21st inst., the writer, in company with a number of other parties, ladies and gentlemen of Sandy Hill, visited the Perry Warm Springs in charge of the very obliging and hospitable proprietor, Mr. J. D. Cree, and assure your readers that our experience was that the "Springs" hotel bathing arrangements, ten pin alley, boating, etc., is just the kind of recreation and comfort that our overworked farmers and their wives need after harvest. You get more for the monthat our overworked farmers and their wives need after harvest. You get more for the money here than at any other watering place I know of. Now I want all of the chaps referred to, to go and enjoy themselves for a day or two. You owe it to yourselves and have a first rate right to roll balls and knock down ten pins at a throw, eat a grand dinner and wash off the harvest dust, for there is no class amongst us who are more entitled to just such pleasures as the farmers, and mechanics. There are other visitors to watering places that would delight to be called the "Aristocraey," but many of whom are merely the creatures of favorable circumstances, and who don't spend a dollar that they earned by their brains and industry. Then ye farmer who are the real aristocracy of the county, assert your rights and enjoy your privileges and go to the Springs a day or two.
